

I join freedom-loving Americans who are urging the FCC not to 1 change radio/tv ownership rules that would allow further 1 consolidation of news sources by giant corporations/conglomerates.1
At the very least, I insist on extensive public hearings before 1 deciding. Freedom of the airwaves is our right.